

Russia Accuses U. S. Trying to Prevent Meet

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev accused President Eisenhower today of trying to scotch an East-West summit conference proposed for New York. He offered as an alternative to convene the talks in Moscow or any other place in Europe suitable to the four other powers.

By the four other powers he meant the United States, Britain, France and India.

He said the Soviet government would guarantee the safety and security of the participants if they met in Moscow.

He was making this offer, he said, because American diplomats and the American press had expressed concern about the difficulty of guaranteeing security of the participants if the meeting were held in New York.

"We do not want to make it difficult for the U.S. government," Khrushchev said in a letter to Eisenhower broadcast by Moscow radio. "We can meet in any of the European capitals. We also would like the meeting to take place in Moscow."

"As regards India's participation, we hold that it is important for her to take part. As to the date of the conference, we named July 28. We are ready for another early date and we would like a confirmation from the U. S. A. concerning this date."

In an apparent attempt to split the Western Allies, the Soviet Premier accused British Prime Minister Macmillan of resorting to "maneuvering" but praised French Premier de Gaulle.

Khrushchev told President Eisenhower "You do not work for peace" and accused him of stalling off a summit conference.

The Soviet leader said: "The

U. S. Balloonists Climb Higher Into Space Than Any Other Humans — Reach 82,000 Feet

By BILL CHEVALIER

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Space explorers Malcolm Ross and M. Lee Lewis survived a 2,000-foot bounce when they came back to earth Sunday from a record-breaking balloon flight.

The 34½-hour trip was man's longest flight into the stratosphere. The balloonists reached 82,000 feet.

The fliers had their toughest decision after a release mechanism failed to detach the massive balloon from the gondola as they were landing.

The 17-story gas bag banged the round aluminum capsule onto a pasture in east central North Dakota, then carried Ross and Lewis aloft again when a firing device failed to release the gondola.

Ross, a Navy commander, suffered a slight cut about his left eye, but he and Lewis began figuring how to get on the ground and stay there.

"Parachuting out of the gondola was one of the alternatives we discussed," Ross said.

"But we're balloon men, not parachute men."

They tried the descent again, and this time were able to release the balloon. The gondola was dragged about six feet over the hilly pasture, then tipped over on its side.

Ross and Lewis climbed out of the oxygen-rich capsule and lit their first cigarettes in nearly a day and a half.

Working constantly on some 50 experiments, Ross and Lewis enjoyed a comfort never before accorded to high-altitude fliers. They never had to wear oxygen masks.

Their gondola was pressurized with the same air pressure they breathed before the balloon soared out of a deep open pit from mine early Saturday. It was the first time an airship, propelled or free flying, was equipped with a full atmosphere, the Navy said. During much of the flight, they floated about without their space helmets.

They ate, drank, ate and slept, and they carried a small television camera aloft and sent America's first stratosphere TV pictures back to the ground.

Their flight was designed primarily as a test for an ascension this November when an astronaut will seek new knowledge about the makeup of Mars' atmosphere.

New Satellite Termed Very Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The world's newest satellite is off to a spectacular start on a five-year journey through space. Scientists keeping a critical eye on Explorer IV announced that the heaviest and most vital of the three U. S. moons in orbit performed smoothly during its first 36 hours.

The launching by the amazingly reliable Jupiter-C rocket last Saturday was so successful, in fact, that the 38½-pound tube probably will be the most durable Army satellite yet.

Officials at first expressed concern that the latest Army venture might be short lived.

As it looped through an elliptical orbit every 110 minutes, the satellite beeped out loud and clear signals on an intense field of radiation 600 miles in outer space.

Latest estimates placed Explorer IV as close to earth as 103 miles and as high as 1,373 miles as it swings around the globe an average of 15 times a day.

Family Price Offered by Swimming Pool

In order to encourage group and family swimming during the month of August, the Hope Municipal Swimming Pool is offering a special family rate for the final month of the swimming season. Families may purchase a family ticket that entitles every child in the family, regardless of the number, to swim for the entire month for $2.50. A similar ticket entitling all children and both parents to swim for the month may be bought for $3.00. Also an entire family, including both parents, will be admitted for a fee rate of $1.00 if they attend the pool as a group.

The pool is offering these special rates in order to allow large families to include swimming in their budgets and to enjoy swimming as a group.

Tickets may be purchased at the pool beginning tomorrow.

Arkansas Highway Share $37.8 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Weeks yesterday announced allocation to the states of $3,400,000.00 in federal aid for road building, the largest apportionment ever made.

Arkansas's share is $37,845,680. The funds are for use in the 1960 fiscal year which begins next July 1. Weeks said the money was being allocated 11 months in advance so the states can make plans and thus insure uninterrupted progress in the program.

"The highway program is on schedule," he said in a statement. "The amount of aid to be passed out in fiscal 1960 is more than the total for the first 24 years of federal highway programs — from 1917 through 1940."

Violent Deaths in Arkansas Reach 18

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five weekend deaths pushed Arkansas' violent death toll to 18 for the week which ended Sunday midnight.

The 7-day death tabulation: Traffic: plane crash 4; drowning 2; burns 1; accidental electrocution 1; fall 1; slaying 1.

The body of James Coley, 19, a Negro woman named Helena, was found floating in a lake near Helena yesterday. J. T. House, 23, a Negro man near Helena, was arrested later.

Deputy Prosecutor John L. Anderson quoted House as saying he killed the woman Saturday night when she resisted his advances in a car on a rural road.

A father of three children drowned in Frog Bayou west of Alma late yesterday.

Sheriff Tom Wilbanks said James Miller, 35, of Alma and his wife, Ellen, apparently became exhausted while swimming in deep water. Both shouted for help.

The sheriff said two unidentified swimmers rescued Mrs. Miller but were unable to reach her husband in time. Miller's body was recovered about an hour after he went under.

At Booneville, a 2½-year-old girl drowned Saturday when she tumbled into a well at her home. She was Verna Gail Meeks, one of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meeks of Booneville.

The mother discovered the tragedy.

Two men died in a West Memphis hospital yesterday of burns received the previous night when their car exploded and burned after striking a bus.

State Trooper Willie Hopper said James Victor Yarbrough, 16, and Paul Fredrick, 17, both of Memphis, were burned fatally when they were trapped inside their car. The trooper said the auto jumped a highway center turn and slammed head-on into the bus.

All inducements will be taken by the Army.

Draft calls of 12,000 were made monthly between February and May and then dropped to 10,000 each for June, July and August.

U. S., Britain Pledge Aid to Pact Nations

LONDON (AP)—John Foster Dulles assured the Baghdad pact nations today the United States would act, even at great risk, to safeguard their independence and integrity against any threats.

The American secretary of state, in the role of observer, was addressing the fifth session of the Baghdad pact council which opened in Lancaster House with one member missing Iran.

"Dulles' statement was made during a survey of the Middle East scene, in the course of which he set forth the significance of the American military landings in Lebanon."

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—British Prime Minister Macmillan today opened the Baghdad Pact Council meeting without Iraq present and announced that the remaining four member nations intend to maintain the aims of their alliance.

The British leader told the conference, which U. S. Secretary of State Dulles is attending as an observer:

"We intend to maintain the aims of our alliance and to consider how to do this in the light of the present situation."

Our purpose is to reaffirm the intentions expressed in that instrument (the Baghdad Pact) as a means for collective security."

One hand for the meeting were the prime ministers and foreign secretaries of Britain, Turkey, Pakistan and Iran as well as Dulles.

Arkansas Voters Go to Polls Tues., Candidates in Final Pitch Tonight

Predictions of 300,000 to 340,000 Votes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The three Democratic candidates for governor tonight will make their last pitch for votes before Arkansas' preferential primary tomorrow.

The candidates—Chis Finkbeiner of Little Rock, Chancellor Lee Ward of Paragould and Gov. Orval Faubus—will appear in 1,23 order on television from Little Rock in their final mass appeal for support.

The word from the Faubus camp is that the governor will be swept to a third term by a landslide margin.

But each of his opponents appears equally confident that he will force the incumbent into a runoff Aug. 12 for the Democratic nomination and then defeat the governor.

Poll tax holders in Arkansas—those eligible to vote — number 503,978. But estimates of the turnout range only from 300,000 to 344,000.

Secretary of State C. G. Hall, who picked the lower figure, based his guess on the lack of a great number of hot local races. In an attempt to swell the vote the Arkansas Democratic (Negro) Voters Assn. urged 100 Negro ministers in the state to pray for a large turnout at their Sunday services. The association appended

Flying Tiger Leader Dies at Age of 67

By JAMES DOWLING

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Lt. Gen. Claire Chennault, the Louisiana farm boy who became commander of the famed Flying Tigers of World War II, is dead. He was 67.

A massive arterial hemorrhage ended the ailing general's fight with lung cancer Sunday in Ochsner Foundation Hospital. His wife, Chinese-born Anna Chan Chennault, was at his side at the end.

Death came nine days after President Eisenhower signed an emergency bill giving Chennault his third star.

The body lies in state here today with a service scheduled this evening. Tuesday, a military plane will fly the body to Washington where it will lie in state until burial the next day in Arlington National Cemetery.

Chennault' old comrade of the Chinese war against Japan, Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, said she was shocked to hear of the general's death.

Mme. Chiang, who made a special trip here July 11 for a dramatic reunion, said in Washington: "He was a great friend of the Chinese people and the cause we stand for."

The Japanese had enough respect for him to name him their No. 1 war criminal, one ahead of President Roosevelt.

A deaf ear and his outspoken support of Gen. Billy Mitchell forced the then Capt. Chennault to retire from the Army Air Corps in April 1937.

Pilkinton Discusses Election Laws

Judge James H. Pilkinton was guest speaker at the Hope Lions Club luncheon today. He spoke on Arkansas election laws.

Generally, every citizen of the age of 21 who has resided in the state 12 months, in the county six months, and in his or her precinct one month, and who has a current poll tax receipt, is entitled to vote.

Judge Pilkinton said, "There are exceptions to the general rule, however, and that so-called 'militia voters' and persons from Arkansas serving in the armed forces of the United States may cast a ballot without having paid a poll tax if otherwise qualified. A militia voter is a person who furnishes satisfactory proof that he or she has attained the age of 21 years after October 1, prior to the election in which they propose to vote, and who is otherwise qualified."

Judge Pilkinton said that he would like to see Hope and Hempstead County be the first city and county in Arkansas to install voting machines. "We were first in adopting the city manager type of government here," he stated, "although the Little Rock papers still persist in saying that Little Rock is the only city in Arkansas with that improvement."

"It would cost money, but would be worth it. It would also lead the way in the matter of voting machines, especially in the city wards, and I would like to see that done before the 1960 elections," the speaker said.

The judge deplored the fact that many people do not vote. "I've pointed out that there are 7,034 poll tax holders in Hempstead County qualified to vote tomorrow, but that if past experience is any guide, many of them will not take the trouble to go to the polls."

Only 4 Races on Ballot for Local Voters

Tuesday local voters go to the polls and of the 7,034 qualified in the County only about 5,000 are expected to cast ballots, so predicts several who have watched elections in this county for years.

Voters in Ward 1 cast ballots at the Old Employment Office building; Ward 1-A — at the Fire Station; Ward 2 — at the Courthouse; Ward 2-A — at the Armory; Ward 3 — at the City Hall; Ward 4 — at City Hall; Box 5 — vacant building on Front street between Main and Walnut; Box 6 — Myers Bakery building on Walnut, next to the Laundry.

for 60,000 of Arkansas' 64,000 Negro poll taxpayers to cast ballots.
An announcement by H. Mer Adkins, Arkansas' fourth living former governor, was another weekend development. "Personally, I am supporting Gov. Faubus wholeheartedly as I have done in all of his previous races," Adkins said.

Former Govs. Ben Laney, Sid McMath and Francis Cherry have all taken stands opposing another term for Faubus.
Faubus, Finkbeiner and Ward wound up their last full week of campaigning Saturday in east Arkansas.

Faubus held a "victory rally" at Jonesboro and appealed for a top-heavy vote to answer the "outside critics who would turn Arkansas over" to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Both Finkbeiner and Ward spoke at Paragould's Diamond Jubilee and then over television from Memphis.

The Little Rock meatpacker said it is not necessary "to vote for the third term candidate to assure that the schools will be segregated." He suggested that voters mark their ballots with a fountain pen, implying that this might prevent vote counting chicanery.

Ward's state headquarters in Little Rock charged earlier that it had heard of plans for ballot manipulation in several counties, dealing mostly with absentee ballots. The statement said the Paragould judge was doing everything to see that the ballots are counted as cast.

The governor's race will be the only statewide contest on tomorrow's ballot, but preferential primaries will be held for congressmen in two districts.

In the Third District of northwest Arkansas, Rep. J. W. Trimble of Berryville is opposed for renomination by three other candidates—Chancellor Franklin Wilder and Lee M. Whitaker, both of Fort Smith, and Donald Poe of Waldron.

In the Fifth District of central Arkansas, two names will be on the ballot besides that of incumbent Brooks Hays of Little Rock. Segregationist leader Amis Guthridge of Little Rock has campaigned actively against Hays. E. M. Harrington of Solgohachia, Conway County, qualified as a candidate. He did not campaign and announced last week that he was dropping out of the race even though by then it was too late to withdraw his name from the ballot.

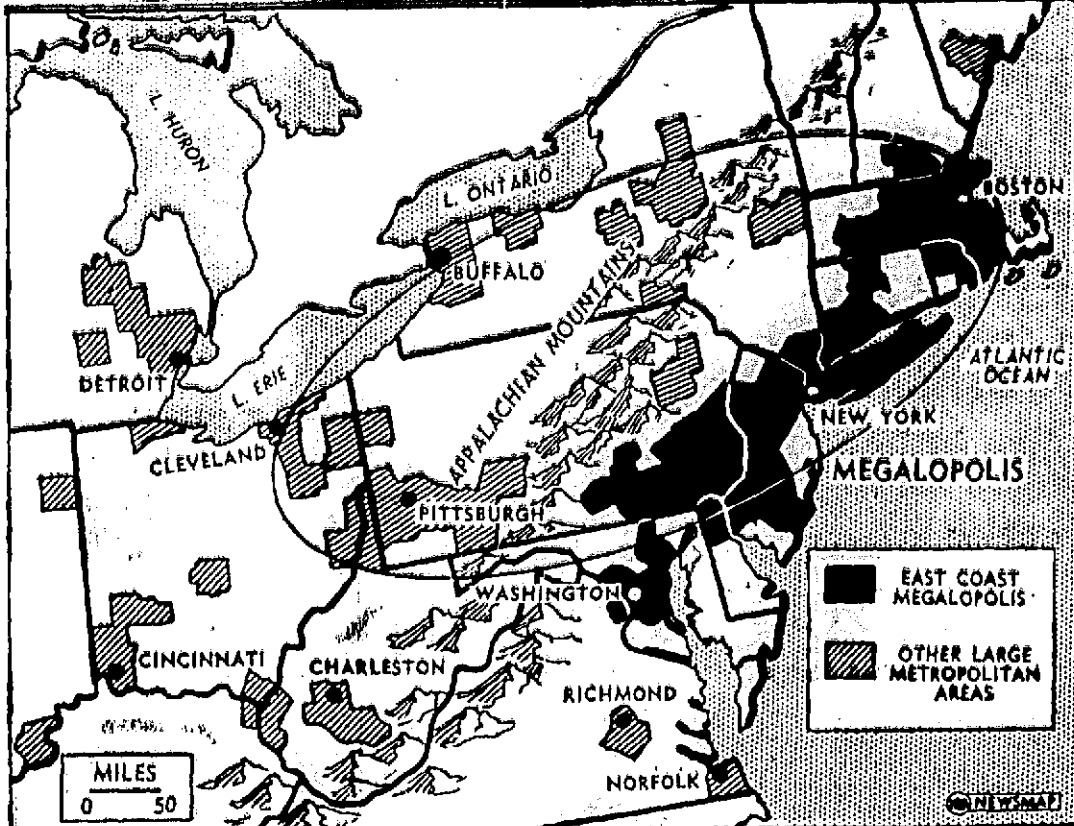

Names of unopposed candidates or candidates in 2-man races do not appear on tomorrow's primary ballot, but automatically go on that for the final primary on Aug. 12. Polls open at 8 a.m. tomorrow and close at 6:30 p.m.

Committee Okays Aid to Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — A big federal aid to education bill was approved today by a Senate Labor subcommittee.
The bill provides thousands of scholarships and other assistance designed chiefly to promote science education.
The subcommittee left it up to duration of the program, if this group should vote for the four years provided in the House passed bill, the cost of the Senate bill would be about 1½ billion dollars or 430 million more than the House bill.

URBANIZED AMERICA—The eastern seaboard of the United States (black area on Newsmap) is the largest and most complex urban system in the world. The Greeks, as usual, had a word for it: "megapolis"—or great city. The American megapolis, of course, is not one great city, but a concentration of large and small cities and counties with a metropolitan, or urban, economy. A study of megapolis by the Twentieth Century Fund shows that similar concentrations are growing to the west of the Appalachians (shaded areas). As modern techniques enable more food to be grown on less land, and as a greater percentage of the population turns to urban activities, the cities are destined to expand. Ellipse on map suggests a vast megapolis of the future which seems to be shaping up.

Engineers at Minneapolis-Honeywell's Micro-Switch division in Freeport, Minn., say the "sub-subminiature," weighing but 1/28 of an ounce, has a five-ampere rating, more than enough to operate the motor of a household refrigerator. But it may find more important use in another field where weight and space are critical. The average guided missile, for example, requires more than 100 electrical switches.

President's message of July 22 welcomed throughout the world and people hoped the summit conference would be held without delay, removing the threat of war in the Middle East and Near East.

Eisenhower, in his July 22 message, challenged Khrushchev to complain to the U.N. Security Council personally if he believes British-American military moves endangered world peace.

On July 23 Eisenhower proposed the Security Council make the arrangements for the summit meeting.

Khrushchev tonight said: "The Security Council has already been discussing the Middle Eastern crisis and as yet failed to do anything at all."

"The area in question is becoming more like a powder keg which can precipitate a world holocaust. Hence the urgency of a five-power conference with the attendance of the U.N. secretary-general."

"If we genuinely want to reduce tension, we must agree that it is the five powers, (Britain, United States, France, Soviet Union, India) that will have to settle the problem. It seems that an effort is made to bury the previous idea of the conference. We cannot accept this."

Pushups Cause Burns to Ft. Chaffee Men

FT. CHAFFEE, Ark. (AP) — A veteran sergeant was under quarters arrest here today pending an investigation of disciplinary measures he allegedly ordered for a group of green Army trainees. Thirty-one soldiers, including two who were hospitalized, suffered second and third degree burns on their hands while doing pushups Saturday on hot asphalt.

Capt. Arlie Metheny, Ft. Chaffee public information officer, said the record of Sgt. Roy C. Cobb, 29, of Atlanta, Ga., showed that he had been in no serious trouble before Cobb had four years of active duty with the Army and three years of inactive duty. Cobb ordered the pushups for the men because they moved after the sergeant had called them to attention, the PIO officer said.

Brig. Gen. William C. Bullock, post commander, interviewed each of the burned men and ordered an investigation.
A report of the probe will go to the general probably today or tomorrow, Metheny said.

Hospitalized with burns were Donald Harber, 19, of Ripley, Tenn., and Don D. Weeks, 22, of Harrisburg, Ark. A third man was hospitalized for an ailment not connected with the pushup burns, Metheny said. The rest of the group were placed on light duty.

The trainees, members of Battery A, 2nd Battalion of Chappie Basic Training Command, were undergoing preliminary activities prior to commencement of rigorous basic training.

Basic training for the battery actually began today.

Metheny said the burned men will be returned to ranks as soon as Army physicians permit.

All Expressed Sympathy to Sen. McClellan

WASHINGTON (AP)—When personal tragedy struck Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) the other day people all over the country were touched and they responded with an outpouring of sympathy.

People from all walks of life—many of them total strangers—have written the Senator to express sorrow at the tragic death of his third son, James H. McClellan, in a plane crash.

Many of these letters begin "You do not know me Senator, but..." or "I have never seen you except on television but..."

All had the common desire to find some words to perhaps ease the Senator's grief.

Within two hours after news of the death was received here a note was delivered from the White House, expressing President Eisenhower's sympathy. There followed similar notes from Cabinet officers, high government officials and others, most of them hand written.

The following day the Senator's colleagues adopted a resolution expressing their sympathy. More than 20 of the Senators took the time to express their feelings for McClellan.

All the letters and messages of condolence received at the Senator's office will be carefully preserved against the day when McClellan will want to look them over.

This latest tragedy which hit the Senator ends with poignant finality his dream of some day practicing law with his son.

At one time the Senator had in mind retiring from the senate "some day" and practicing law with another of his sons, John L. This dream ended several years ago when John was killed in an automobile accident in Arkansas.

Ike Asks $8 Billion Hike in Debt Limit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today asked Congress for an eight-billion-dollar temporary increase in the national debt limit. It would raise the ceiling to $28 billion.

Eisenhower also requested that the permanent statutory debt limit be raised to 100 billion dollars by 1965.

The President made his request in identical letters to Vice President Nixon, the Senate's presiding officer, and House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.). He said the Treasury Department and the Budget Bureau have advised him that contemplated revenues and expenditures for the current fiscal year make it necessary to request a debt ceiling increase.

"Accordingly," Eisenhower said, "the administration is at this time asking the Congress to increase the regular statutory debt limit to 28 billion dollars and also to provide an additional temporary increase of three billion dollars to run through June 30, 1960."

The present temporary ceiling of 20 billion dollars is authorized through next June.

The first practical matches were made in 1827 by John Walker, a druggist, in England. They were spluttering, explosive splinters of wood tipped with a mixture of white, smoky sulphide, potassium chlorate, gum arabic and starch. They were drawn between folds of paper covered with ground glass to light them.

Arctic-bound Blimp Lands in New Jersey

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP) — A Navy blimp bound for the arctic landed here today after fog and a low ceiling caused it to detour from Massachusetts.

The aircraft touched down at the Lakehurst Naval Air Station to refuel and wait for the weather to clear. It then was to depart for Churchill, Man., on an expedition to the polar regions.

The 343-foot blimp (ZPG-2), had left South Weymouth in a heavy fog Sunday night.

The blimp hung over Long Island Sound for several hours hoping the fog would lift when it didn't the decision to go to Lakehurst was made.

Its destination is the ice island known as "3," this country's floating weather station in the Arctic Ocean.

John Milligan of The Associated Press will be the only newsmen aboard when the blimp goes to the arctic. He planned to fly by Navy plane from here to Churchill, and go aboard the blimp there.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Department of the American Legion yesterday adopted a resolution asking the federal government to convert Army-Navy General Hospital at Hot Springs to an Air Force hospital.

The Army has sought frequently to close the hospital, which has been kept open by congressional action.

Marshall Blackard of Blytheville was elected new department commander before the Legion wound up its three-day convention. Harvey Turner of Huntsville and Hec Stevens of McGehee were elected vice commanders.

Officers chosen by the Women's Auxiliary included Mrs. Doyle Daniel of Hot Springs, president; Mrs. Lawrence Hicks of Fayetteville, vice president, and Mrs. Ben T. Mays of Blytheville, national executive committee woman.

GAINESVILLE, Mo. (AP) — A man was arrested in Arkansas yesterday and charged here with the kidnaping of 18-year-old Wilma Jean Reynolds of Wheatland, Ind.

Rose said Strum was arrested in Baxter County in north Arkansas. He said Wilma Jean had identified Strum as a man who offered her a ride and a job in Indiana. Rose

Negro Shot to Death at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — Joseph E. Walker, insurance executive and one of this city's leading Negro residents, was shot to death in his office today.

Another Negro, J. U. Hamilton, about 60, no address, was arrested for questioning.

Walker, 77, was chairman of the board of the Universal Life Insurance Co.

Detective Chief Charles Young said J. T. Chandler, the insurance company's personal director, told him:

"I heard a shot. As I got to the door of Dr. Walker's office, I saw J. W. Hamilton come out of the office. He was trying to put a gun in his pocket."

Chandler said that after the man quoted Strum as saying the girl agreed to come to Missouri with him.

The girl told authorities a man about 55 years old offered her a job with the Red Cross in Vincennes, Ind., and she accompanied him after obtaining her mother's permission. However, she said the man did not stop in Vincennes and continued driving through Illinois and Southern Missouri. She said she was released about three miles south of here Friday morning.

Air Force Soon to Shoot for Moon

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Indications are that the Air Force will shoot or the moon sometime between Aug. 15 and 17.

Officially there was no comment on the target date, but one authoritative source said today an attempt will be made to place a satellite in orbit around the moon after a 2½-day flight.

The spokesman said the third week in August was chosen for the launching because the moon is comparatively close to earth at that time—231,463 miles.

It was learned that present plans call for the rocket satellite to swing around the moon in orbit, relaying back pictures electronically to earth. After several days the satellite would fall back into the earth's gravitational field and burn up in the atmosphere.

left, Walker staggered out of the office, clutching a gaping bullet wound in his chest.

Hamilton was picked up a few blocks from the insurance company building.

Young said no motive for the shooting was established immediately.
Walker was attacked at his home last Feb. 8 by a masked man whom he identified as a Negro. The man ran when Walker yelled for help. The insurance executive said then that he assumed robbery was the motive for the attack.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE JUDGES AND ELECTION OFFICIALS OF THE JULY 29, 1958 AND AUGUST 12, 1958 DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTIONS

IRREGULAR BALLOTS

BALLOTS CAST BY VOTERS OTHER THAN THOSE LISTED ON THE OFFICIAL POLL TAX LIST ARE IRREGULAR BALLOTS.

WHAT THE ELECTION JUDGES SHOULD DO WITH IRREGULAR BALLOTS

IRREGULAR BALLOTS MIGHT BE CLASSED AS BALLOTS CAST:

- (1) by maiden voters;
- (2) by those voters holding valid poll tax receipts whose names have been omitted from the official poll tax list;
- (3) by those voters holding valid poll tax receipts from another county in Arkansas, who have resided in Hempstead County for six (6) months and;
- (4) by those who hold valid poll tax receipts, but whose names have been improperly recorded on the official poll tax list, i.e., J. W. Smith pays his poll tax and gives Ward 3 as his voting precinct. There is no J. W. Smith shown in the official poll tax list of poll tax payers for Ward 3, but there is a W. J. Smith shown as having paid a poll tax. In such cases, the judges, if convinced, would have the right to let such person vote. They could require an affidavit or could act on their judgment, without an affidavit, but in either event the vote would be listed as an irregular vote.

COMMENT:

There are few elections contested, but occasionally we do have a contest. In some instances where there are only a few votes difference in the vote received by the two candidates, it is, therefore, important and necessary that the election officials conduct the election according to law and then it is not so difficult to ascertain a correct vote.

There is, in the election supplies, blanks for the clerks to record the names of voters whose names do not appear on the official poll tax list. In other words, irregular ballots. These names should also be recorded on the list of the voters as they appear to vote in the county. The irregular list written opposite the name of the voters should be an explanatory note. For instance, "if it is a maiden vote — write the two words 'maiden voter' after the name; if the voter is permitted to vote on a valid poll tax receipt and his name does not appear on the official poll tax list, write 'poll tax receipt' after the name; if the voter has lived in the County six months and holds a valid poll tax receipt from some other county in the state, write 'qualified as to residence — valid poll tax receipt from _____ County,' opposite the voter's name; and, if it should be because of an error in recording the name that should, also, be stated opposite the voter's name.

WHAT TO DO WITH AFFIDAVITS AND POLL TAX RECEIPTS

There is a special envelope in which all affidavits of maiden voters and other affidavits and poll tax receipts should be placed. This envelope, containing said affidavits and poll tax receipts should be placed in the original ballot box.

Frequently there are some questions about what should be done with the poll tax receipt. The law specifies the receipts should be placed in the judges' office of the election and placed in the said envelope, or the voter may get an affidavit from the Sheriff showing that he has paid his poll tax and file this affidavit with the judges.

The question is frequently asked, "when will I get my poll tax receipt back?" Under the law they could not get it back under six months. In other words, the purpose of all these requirements is to have the written evidence in the original ballot box, showing the authority on which the judges permitted the voter to cast his ballot. Without this there would be no evidence at all showing the authority on which the judges acted. Sometimes these poll tax receipts are thrown away and the judges want to ensure the judges for demanding the poll tax receipt, but on second thought they certainly should see the necessity of it to enable their ballot to be counted in the event of a contest. The error is on the part of whoever makes up the official poll tax list.

WHAT TO PLACE IN THE ORIGINAL BALLOT BOX

ONE COPY OF THE POLL BOOKS
ONE COPY OF SHEET
ONE LIST OF VOTERS
ALL BALLOTS
THE ENVELOPE CONTAINING THE AFFIDAVITS, POLL TAX RECEIPTS, ETC.

WHAT RETURNS ARE SUPPOSED TO GO TO THE COUNTY CLERK

A CERTIFIED COPY OF THE VOTE EACH CANDIDATE RECEIVED
LIST OF EVERY VOTER WHO VOTED AT THE PRECINCT

WHAT PAPERS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO THE SECRETARY OF THE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE

A CERTIFIED LIST OF THE VOTE RECEIVED BY EACH CANDIDATE
A LIST OF ALL VOTERS WHO VOTED AT THE PRECINCT
A LIST OF VOTERS WHOSE NAMES DO NOT APPEAR ON THE OFFICIAL LIST OF POLL TAX PAYERS
ONE TALLY SHEET
REMEMBER THAT WHEN THE CLERKS RECORD THE NAMES OF THE VOTERS THEY RECORD ALL OF THEM IN THE ORDER AS THEY ARE RECORDED AT THE PRECINCT. REGARDLESS OF THE ORDER IN WHICH THE NAMES DO NOT APPEAR ON THE OFFICIAL POLL TAX LIST THEY MAKE A SEPARATE LIST OF THE IRREGULARS AS HEREINAFTER EXPLAINED.

Baghdad Pact Group Goes Into Session

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS LONDON (AP) — The Baghdad Pact nations meet today as Western diplomats try to knot together a new unit policy aimed at living with Arab nationalism in the Middle East.

There was a growing tendency toward recognition of the new Iraqi republic as U.S. Secretary of State Dulles held preliminary talks with the four non-Arab Baghdad Pact members—Britain, Turkey, Pakistan and Iran.

Iraq, the only Arab member of the alliance, has not yet withdrawn from the pact, but its new revolutionary government has not sent representatives to this meeting.

U.S. sources said that Dulles is strongly in favor of continuing the Baghdad Pact, despite the likelihood that the new Iraqi government will pull out of it.

The United States has joined only the pact's economic, military and counter-subversive committees. It reportedly still has no plans to take full membership.

The trend toward recognition of the Iraqi government was based on a realization that the regime was in power to stay and nothing apparently can be done about it. Pakistan was considering going ahead with recognition on its own, and the United States was reportedly leaning toward recognition as a gesture of friendship toward Arab nationalism.

The West, meanwhile, awaited Soviet Premier Khrushchev's reply to President Eisenhower's proposal that the U.N. Security Council arrange a summit conference on the Middle East. An Associated Press survey of the Council indicated that at least 7 of the 11 Council members would approve holding the conference within the U.N.

DOROTHY DIX

The Shoes Worn Make Feet Pretty or Plain

Dear Dorothy Dix: My teen-age daughter is having a problem in adjusting her mental attitude and gracefully accepting her recent loss of two toes. Both her second toes had been deformed since birth and we always knew that someday they would have to be amputated. My daughter refused to believe this would actually happen but, as a result of infection, the operation was performed. Actually, I feel it has improved the appearance of her feet but she won't listen to me and just broods over the loss of her toes. She won't go swimming with the other youngsters and never goes on weekend parties as she used to, for fear that someone will see her feet. Do you have any suggestions that might change her sense of values? She reads your column regularly and it might help. — Mrs. M. T.

Dear Miss T.: You are causing your mother a great deal of worry, and yourself much unhappiness, by your refusal to accept something that cannot be changed. Your mother tells me your feet have actually improved in appearance, and that you now can wear any style shoe, where before you were limited in your choice of footwear. Isn't it nice to be able to buy the fashionable shoes now on the market and to wear them comfortably? Think of all the people who are denied this pleasure, even though they have a full complement of toes. Women with bunions, callouses or bad corns must wear old-fashioned oxfords, and sometimes these conditions exist among young women, too. People will see you much more often in shoes than in bare feet, so in the long run you're distinctly at an advantage. Even with bare feet you shouldn't feel self-conscious. After all, who notices them? Wear a sunny smile and no one will look below it. If someone thoughtless person does comment on the condition, dismiss it lightly with, "Oh, didn't you hear about my operation?" I must tell you about it sometime! Count all your blessings and I'm sure this one deficiency will be lost in the shuffle. I'd like to hear that you have overcome your complex. Won't you write me?

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a shy unattractive 16-year-old girl with no friends. I'm bored with life, but especially with summer vacation. I tried to get a job this year but there was nothing available. Can you suggest any way for me to pass the time? — Becky.

Dear Becky: My goodness, girl, no one is as hopeless as you pretend to be. Long summer days provide a perfect time for a program of self-improvement. Want to go back to school as a confident, attractive, 16-year-old girl? Well, you can. There are many books written just for your problem — books that will tell you how to improve your appearance, grooming, manners, social acceptability and family relations. Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and I'll send you a list of them. Your library will probably have them, or you might invest a couple of dollars in one. It will be money well spent.

Dear Dorothy Dix: A good friend of mine is always bragging about her boy friends and the dates she has. She even thinks my boy friends go for her when they hear this boasting is getting on my nerves. — Fed Up.

Dear Fed Up: One of the most important lessons in life is that we must learn to take people as they are. If your friend is bragging about her boy friends, let her brag. It's none of your business. If your friends go for her, let them. It's none of your business. Don't let her boasting get to you. You are a good person and you will find a boy friend who will love you for who you are.

Panama were as yet uncertain on the proposal. French Premier de Gaulle wants the meeting held in Europe but has not said he wouldn't come to the U.N.

Britain, Canada, the Soviet Union and the United States are in record for the meeting, and Colombia, Japan and Sweden were expected to agree.

Honey Moans About Braves' Injuries

By CHUCK CAPALDO Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — If the Milwaukee Braves win the National League pennant again this year, they'll do so with a bigger cast of walking wounded than played roles in the 1957 championship.

Toward the close of last season, Braves manager Fred Haney observed that in all his years in baseball he'd never experienced such a run of injuries. He spoke to soon, a season too soon.

This year, his regulars have played together in only five of the club's 63 games to date. He fielded his regulars for the first 17 games of the '57 campaign before he was forced to go to the bench for help.

The regulars include either Frank Torre or Joe Adcock at first; Del Crandall or Del Rice behind the plate; Wes Covington, Billy Bruton and Hank Aaron in the outfield; Red Schoendienst at second; Eddie Mathews at third; and Johnny Logan at short.

Of the 93 games played to date, only Aaron with 92, Logan with 61 and Mathews with 60 have appeared with any degree of regularity.

Among those not expected to share their positions, Schoendienst has appeared in only 54 games, Bruton in 51 and Covington in 22. Andy Pafko, 37-year-old spare infielder, has been in 53 games—more than any of the three.

While the Braves play the International League All-Stars in Toronto today, three of Haney's amputees will visit Detroit. The state organization, which has been sought by the liberal organization, the Democrats of Texas.

Daniel's backers claimed that conservatives have nipped down 2,588 of the 4,788 delegates to the state convention Sept. 9 in San Antonio. Control of the state organization this year takes on added importance, because it will determine the Texas delegation to the 1960 Democratic National Convention.

Daniel polled 741,219 votes to win the Democratic gubernatorial nomination — tantamount to election in Texas. Former Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel received 222,727 votes. State Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez, 222,940, and Joe Irwin, retired insurance man, 32,220.

Eighteen of Texas' congressmen faced no opposition. Three others were renominated. Rep. Martin Dies whose congressman-at-large job was abolished with the creation of the new 22nd Dist., did not seek office.

In the general election, Daniel will face Ed Mayer, Republican from Sonora. Yarborough will face cattleman and newspaper publisher Roy Whittenburg of Amarillo.

American Athletes Ahead in Meet With Russians

MOSCOW (AP) — The United States scored victories in the men's and women's 200-meter dashes today to move farther in front of the Soviet Union in their dual track and field meet.

Soviet officials reversed themselves in the women's 200 after Maria Iltina had been declared the winner.

A photo was called for. First place then was given to Lucinda Williams of Bainbridge, Ga., a student at Tennessee State College.

Miss Iltina had accepted congratulations and the American flag had left the track when the decision was reversed.

Ed C. Lyman of Cambridge, Mass., won the men's 200-meter dash in 21.3 with Jim Seagrist of Abilene, Tex., finishing a disappointing fourth.

In the continuing decathlon, a 10-event test, Rafer Johnson of Los Angeles, the U.S. champion, moved farther ahead of Vasily Kuznetsov, his Russian rival.

With three events remaining, Johnson had 8,224 points and the Russian 6,050.

The second day's program started on a heavy track dampened by heavy overnight rains.

Flares were lighted in the discus and shot put circles in an effort to dry them out.

A crowd of only 15,000 was in the giant, 104,000-seat stadium when the first events began.

Competition in the decathlon started the day's program.

Dave Edstrom of Sherwood, Ore., won the 110-meter hurdles with Rafer Johnson of Los Angeles second and the Soviet champion, Kuznetsov, third. Johnson is leading the 10-event test.

The United States led the Soviet Union 83-75 after the first day's program. The men were ahead 62-45 while the U.S. women trailed 22-30.

The United States scored its first victory of the day when Ed C. Lyman of Cambridge, Mass., won the 200-meter race. Jim Seagrist of Abilene, Tex., was fourth.

MOSCOW (AP) — One of the great spectacles of sports — The United States vs. the Soviet Union in a track and field meet in the heart of the Communist world — threatened today to become also one of the great upsets.

America's stalwart team of men and women went into the second day of the two-day competition holding an 83-75 margin.

And Uncle Sam's lads and ladies have a fair chance of holding or increasing the precarious lead.

The United States' men figured to defeat the Russian men. But the Soviet women were rated far more powerful for the American girls.

So powerful, in fact, that the Russian women were expected to move than minks up the men's deficit and give the Soviets victory. The Russians consider it one big meet. The Americans claim it is two.

But even fearing it the Russians' way, Coaches George Ennamet (men) and Ed Temple (women) were hopeful with 17 events on today's schedule.

It could be that victory hinges on the decathlon, the final event of which winds in the meet. Rafer Johnson, Little Los Angeles athlete, went into the last five events holding a 4,224-4,220 lead over his chief Russian opponent, Vasily Kuznetsov.

Johnson won three of Sunday's five events — the 100, shot put and 400 meters. Kuznetsov captured the broad jump and tied with Dave Edstrom of Sherwood, Ore., for first in the high jump.

While feeling very good, Eastman coach at Manhattan College, admitted, "If my team led by 100 points with only one event to go, I would still be nervous."

The biggest surprise were the showings of the American women, who trail in points, 30-22, six or eight points better than expected. The U.S. girls won the 100 meters and 400-meter relay event and had a second place in the discus.

Barbara Jones of Tennessee State took the 100-meters in 11.5 while the U.S. team of Isabel Daniels, Lucinda Williams, Mary Jones, all of Tennessee State, took the 400-meter relay in 1:45.4.

There were disappointments too. The pole vault, long considered an American specialty, went to Vladimir Bulatov of Russia, who vaulted 14 feet, 9.17 inches, while Barbara Clark of Tennessee State was second with 14-5.25.

Rafer Johnson, who won the shot put with a heave of 82 feet, 9.50 inches said he felt an especially big urge to do his best, especially because of the Russian women.

U.S. Ambassador J. Lee Wilson was among the nearly 100,000 spectators that jammed Lenin Stadium.

Ira Murchison, Chicago, won the 100 meters in 10.2; Glenn Davis, Columbus, Ohio, took the 400 meters in 1:45.8; Arthur Robinson, Fresno, Calif., captured the 110-meter high hurdles in 1:13.0; Murchison, Davis, Jim Seagrist, Abilene, Tex., and Ed C. Lyman, Cambridge, Mass., won the 100-meter relay.

Patrick Henry declared an appointment as secretary of state.

Sunday Curfew Stops 2 Games; Braves in Lead

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

The good old Sunday curfew has done it again in the National League. Two games, stopped by the clock in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, will stand on a limb of the law—unfinished until Sept. 9.

Milwaukee is ahead at the moment by one full game. You won't know until Sept. 9 whether the San Francisco Giants really are half a game or a game and a half behind. By that time, it may not matter.

When the clock hit 6:58 p.m., Sunday baseball suddenly lost its legal standing in Pennsylvania.

The umpires shoed the athletes to the shelter of the clubhouse and wired President Warren G. to enter two more "suspended games" in the books. The only thing arrested was a potential winning rally by the Phillies.

Milwaukee moved out front by whipping the Chicago Cubs 4-1 with Henry Aaron diving in three runs and Carlton Wilfong winning with ninth-inning help from Don McMahon. It was Wilfong's fourth victory since his recall from Wichita six weeks ago.

The Giants were knocked out of a first-place tie by the Pirates. Bob Skinner's ninth-inning home run tied the score and Dick Groat finally untied it with a sacrifice fly in the 4th for a 2-1 Pittsburgh decision.

The Pirates came from behind to tie the second at 3-3 when play was suspended.

Robbie Roberts won his 100th game (10 this year) as the Phils squeaked Los Angeles 7-4. Willie Jones hit two homers and Carl Sawatsky one in that first game.

The second game had degenerated into an exhibition of chivalry fielding with pitcher Bob Chisholm making two wild throws and Charley Neal one just before curfew time. The Phils had rallied to go ahead 2-1 and they were still battling with two out in the sixth inning when play was suspended.

Cincinnati remained tied with Pittsburgh for fourth place by splitting two with St. Louis. After Larry Jackson pitched the Cards to a 4-3 victory in the opener, the Redlegs bombed Bob Mabe and his successors 10-1 in the second game.

In the American League, Cleveland knocked off the New York Yankees twice by identical 7-2 scores as Rocky Colavito homered in each game. Second-place Boston beat Chicago 7-3. Camilo Pascual and Pedro Ramos pitched the Washington Senators to a double victory over Detroit 4-3 and 6-1. Roger Maris' clutch hit in the fifth inning of the first game helped the Yankees to a 5-4 win over Baltimore.

In the Milwaukee game, Wilfong was in charge until the ninth when he loaded the bases with one out. McMahon came on to retire the side with one pitch as Sammy Taylor rapped into a double play. Dave Hillman was the loser.

The first game at Pittsburgh was a real thriller, a tight battle between Ronnie Kline and Al Worthington in the early stages. The lone Giant run was a homer by Ray Jablonski. Frank Thomas' two-run homer in the sixth inning of the second game helped the Pirates overcome an early Giant lead.

Roberts lasted all the way to take the first game in Philadelphia although clipped for 12 hits including a homer by Don Zimmerman.

Alex Kellner was Cincinnati's second game winner at St. Louis with the tail end of the Redlegs' batting order—Don Hoak, Roy McMillan and Kellner—driving in eight of the runs. Frank Robinson, whose ninth-inning two-run homer almost upended Jackson in the opener, had a 5-for-8 day.

MOSCOW (AP) — Is the small car—100-inch wheelbase or less—nearing the peak of its U. S. market penetration?

The question is arousing almost as much speculation in automotive circles as the possibility of an upturn in the industry's overall sales volume next year. The answers differ widely.

European auto makers who have been supplying most of the small cars sold in this country say demand will continue to mount. Major U. S. car builders, with small units already well developed in their styling and engineering departments, may not think into production late next year. But they are not presently convinced that part of the smaller car market will be profitable.

Meanwhile American motors has pulled itself out of the red with its 108-inch wheelbase Rambler car, and Studebaker-Packard has the same goal with a shorter wheelbase model for 1959.

Persons close to the industry's activities say the smaller units currently in development by the larger auto builders will be on 108-inch wheelbase chassis. That would make them only eight to 10 inches shorter than the present minimum wheelbase length of some conventional models.

Those who say the small car penetration will peak at around 400,000 units annually insist the chief appeal of the smaller vehicles is their lower price tags and their fuel economy.

Whether the major U. S. car makers can and will build a smaller car to compete both in initial cost and fuel economy with imported makes is a question yet to be answered.

The Archer brothers, Jimmy and Joe, return to St. Nicholas Arena in New York tonight. Jimmy, 23, boxes Tony La. Blase, 20, of New York, in the 10-round welterweight main event. Brother Joe, only 20, will try for his 10th straight win in a six-round preliminary bout with Bernie Barnes of Stamford, Conn.

The main event will be telecast to some sections by DuMont.

Spider Webb, a London winner in his last fight, has stepped in for Saul for Gene Palmer. The former middleweight champion was injured in a fight for his Wednesday night match with Frank Sautina in Madison Square Garden.

The match will be televised.

Tony Anthony, the No. 2 light heavyweight contender, is working on a string of four consecutive knockouts. He hopes to make the veteran Archie Moore his next victim Friday at Syracuse, N. Y.

Anthony's victory was stopped in seven rounds by Archie Moore in a title match last September. He has knocked out Yvon Durville, Art Miller, Orville Pitts and Cal Brad in subsequent bouts.

The 10-rounders will be carried on network (NBC) radio and TV.

Yankees Drop Doubleheader to Cleveland

By JACK HAND

Just when Casey Stengel was ready to retire to his ivory tower to dream World Series strategy, along came this fellow Rocky Colavito. When Colavito finished his Sunday workout, Casey's New York Yankees had lost a doubleheader to Cleveland.

Rocky started slowly. In the 7-2 first game he only hit a two-run homer. But in the 7-2 second game with the score tied, the bases full and Bob Turley, the majors' leading pitcher, on the mound, he smashed another homer.

Boston galloped back into the midst of things, only 14 games back, by hitting four homers during a 7-3 romp over Chicago. Washington's Cuban pitching pair of Camilo Pascual and Pedro Ramos downed Detroit twice, 4-3 and 6-1, and dropped the Tigers into seventh place. Roger Maris sent five runs across the plate as Kansas City turned on their Baltimore tormentors for an 11-6 victory.

Milwaukee opened up a full game lead in the National League with a 4-1 victory over Chicago. Pittsburgh dropped San Francisco out of a first-place tie by beating the Giants 2-1 in 14 innings.

Wally Jones hit two homers to ease Robin Roberts' way in a 7-4 Philadelphia victory over Los Angeles. St. Louis and Cincinnati divided a pair. The Cards took the opener 4-3 and the Redlegs, the second 10-1.

The Yankees took a seven-game winning streak into Cleveland. Cal McLish broke the string with an eight-inning first game while Colavito and Billy Harrell hit home runs.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant was even better in the second game with a three-hitter. Hank Bauer's single with one out in the sixth was the first Yankee hit. The score was tied at 2-2 when Colavito hit his grand slam off Turley.

Jim Piersall, Don Buddin, Jackie Jensen and Frank Malzone hit home runs in Boston's winning attack. Jensen's clutch hit was his 20th, high in the majors, knocking out Billy Pierce. Bud Beyerly won in relief.

Pascual allowed only four hits and Ramos gave up five in their fine efforts at Detroit. Eddie Yost, Washington's veteran third baseman, had six hits and Ramos helped his own cause with three singles. Bob Hazle's homer in a 7-4 second game was the Tigers' seventh pinch home run of the year, matching a league record. Frank Lary and Hank Aguirre were the losers.

Chico Carrasquel and Joe DeMaestri, two Athletics who are not known for their tenacious hitting, hit home runs against Baltimore, and Bob Newman hit a pair for the losers. Ned Garver won with relief help from Murry Dickson.

Matter of FACT

With one-sixteenth of the world's population, the United States probably holds about one-half of the world's patents. The patent is an agreement between the government, representing the public, and the inventor. The first act relating to patents was passed by Congress in 1790. The present U.S. patent system, started in 1836, has been copied by most of the civilized world.

It was her first stage appearance for years since she fractured her leg in a skiing mishap several months ago. She'll be wearing a cast for another two months. Meanwhile, the show goes on.
